

Above Lane's wonderful finds at the Salt Plains.

Bottom left,,, hmm, wonder what this critter is thinking?

Right, what's left after a big fish fry!

Work day/ upper left and right and middle.
Rock Breakers!! Getting all that frustration out!

Lower left. Specimen baggers.

Beautiful day to work outside! And thanks to the McMullen's for the use of their home.
